

My name is Lynn Rognsvoog. I started my teaching career in 1985, while still in college. I attended Andrews University in beautiful Michigan, where I grew up. I graduated in 1987 with a Bachelor of Music degree with an emphasis on Keyboard Education. I moved to Portland in 1988 to assume the piano instructor position and accompaniment responsibilities here at PAES.

I live out in the country on a little farm with my husband, David, and our three children: Liezel, Faith and Fenton. We enjoy big trees and lots of stars at night along with our four cats, numerous chickens, one rabbit and a sugar glider!

My Classroom Philosophy:

Music is a lifelong love of mine and I hope to help make it so for them as well. I enjoy teaching the piano to kids because they are so eager to learn and discover new things and understand why things are the way they are. I love to see the progress that is made as we work on their music and, specifically, as they learn about the piano.

Why I choose to work in Christian Education:

I love working at PAES because we can freely share why we love the Lord and what He has done for us in our lives—we can all share together the good news that Jesus loves us.
