

My name is Kevin McCray Jr. and I was born and raised in Jacksonville, Florida. I attended Saint Francis University (located in Loretto, PA) where I played D1 football and received a Bachelor's degree in Business Management. You will often find me repping my hometown team the Jacksonville Jaguars. I enjoy spending time with my wife and two children. Some of my hobbies include gardening, DIY projects, drawing and hopefully playing video games again.

My Classroom Philosophy:

My classroom philosophy is to help students "challenge God to do new things through you." That is summed up by one of my favorite bible verses, "God doesn't give us the spirit of fear but of power, love and a sound mind." (2 Timothy 1:7) You must be mobile-minded to go to the next level and that is what I intend to teach to each student... helping them find their passions, pursue their goals and give God the praise.

Why I choose to work in Christian Education:

After college, I worked for Walgreens for a total of nine years with three of those years as a store manager. I left retail to join the non-profit sector at Albertina Kerr where I worked as a Job Developer finding employment for people with disabilities and other employment barriers. However, God uncovered the opening at PAES for Athletic Director through a friend and I am now enjoying the world of Christian education! When two passions align you know it's God who is in control. My love for sports has allowed me the opportunity to share Christ on and off the field and/or court.
