

PAES School Board

PAES is governed by a Board of Directors whose members are appointed by thirteen Seventh-day Adventist churches in the greater Portland area. Each of these churches give financial support to the school. These churches are:

Mt. Tabor	Rockwood	Lents
Sharon	Stone Tower	Romanian
Sunnyside	Your Bible Speaks	Korean
Open Arms	Vietnamese	Russian
Spanish

The number of representatives from each church is dependent upon the church's total membership. In addition to representatives from each church, other Board members include the school Principal, the Oregon Conference of Seventh-day Adventists Educational Superintendent, a pastor from each constituent church, the Home & School Leader and a school representative elected by the teaching staff.

The Board Chairperson and Vice Chairperson (as well as members of the Executive Committee) are elected annually by the Board from among these board members. Membership on the Personnel Committee, Finance Committee and Policy Committee comes from the representatives sent by the churches to the board or from other individuals appointed from outside the board.
